In the early summer of 1956, 23-year-old Colin Clark, just down from Oxford and determined to make his way in the film business, worked as a lowly assistant on the set of "The Prince and the Showgirl," the film that famously united Laurence Olivier and Marilyn Monroe, who was also on honeymoon with her new husband, the playwright Arthur Miller. Nearly 40 years later, his diary account, "The Prince, the Showgirl and Me," was published, but one week was missing, and this was published some years later as "My Week With Marilyn." This is the story of that week. When

Arthur Miller leaves England, the coast is clear for Colin to introduce Marilyn to some of the pleasures of British life: An idyllic week in which he escorted a Monroe desperate to get away from her retinue of Hollywood hangers-on and the pressures of work. Stars: Michelle Williams, Eddie Redmayne, Julia Ormond, Kenneth Branagh, Pip Torrens, Emma Watson. 2011, Rated: R, 96 min., Drama
