Plan Commission Meeting

The Plan Commission meets once each month at 5:30 p.m. in Meeting Rooms D-E (first floor) of the City-County Government Center at 160 South Macy Street. Please refer to the Plan Commission Timetable for the meeting schedule. The petitioner should attend the meeting to present his/her proposal to the Plan Commission.

City staff review: A rezoning proposal is reviewed by Community Development staff to determine conformance with zoning requirements, development standards, long term land use plans and neighborhood impact. An analysis of a proposal with a recommendation for approval or denial is prepared for the Plan Commission. The staff memo is provided to the petitioner in advance of the Plan Commission meeting.

Plan Commission Action: The Plan Commission's recommendation for approval or denial of a rezoning considers information provided by the petitioner, a technical analysis and evaluation of the proposal by Community Development staff, correspondence received in advance of the public meeting and testimony received at the public meeting.

The Plan Commission is advisory to the City Council. The findings of the Plan Commission are reviewed by the City Council at its regular meeting the week following the Plan Commission meeting.
