Plan Commission Meeting

The Plan Commission meets once each month at 5:30 p.m. in Meeting Rooms D-E (first floor) of the City-County Government Center at 160 South Macy Street. Please refer to the Plan Commission Timetable for the meeting schedule. The petitioner should attend the meeting to present his/her proposal to the Plan Commission and answer any questions.

City Staff Review: A special use permit proposal is reviewed by Community Development staff to determine conformance with zoning requirements, development standards, long term land use plans and neighborhood impact. An analysis of a proposal with a recommendation for approval or denial is prepared for the Plan Commission. The staff memo is provided to the petitioner in advance of the Plan Commission meeting.

Plan Commission Action: The Plan Commission's recommendation for approval or denial of a special use permit considers information provided by the petitioner, a technical analysis and evaluation of the proposed special use permit prepared by Community Development staff, correspondence received in advance of the public meeting and testimony received at the public meeting.

The Plan Commission is advisory to the City Council. The findings of the Plan Commission are reviewed by the City Council at its regular meeting the week following the Plan Commission meeting.

Special Use Permit Approval

A special use permit approval is valid for one year - construction of the land use or activity must begin within one year from the date the permit was granted by the City Council and shall continue with due diligence or the permit will be null and void. A one-year extension to an approved special use permit may be administratively authorized by the Community Development Department with the submittal of a written request prior to expiration of the approved special use permit, setting forth the facts which require an extension.
