Timeline

Public Notice: Notification of the appeal request is mailed to neighbors by the City Clerk's office. The notice explains the appeal request and provides information for the meeting date, time and location. The notice is also mailed to the applicant.

Board of Appeals Meeting: The applicant or a representative of the applicant must attend the meeting to present the appeal request and answer any questions the Board may have. If the applicant fails to appear, the Board will postpone action on the request. Based on the facts of the case and using statutory guidelines, the Board will make a decision on the request. If an appeal is approved, the applicant may then apply for a building permit. A decision of the Board of Appeals is final. There is no administrative appeal process.

Appeal Approval: An appeal is valid for a period of one year from the date of the meeting at which the approval occurred. If a building permit is not applied for within the one-year period, a new appeal must be granted. A one-year extension may be administratively authorized by the Community Development Department with the submittal of a written request prior to expiration of the approved appeal, setting forth the facts that require an extension.
