Lakeside Park Exploratory Committee

November 18, 2014
Meeting #4

Committee Process Overview

Kaner, 2007

Final Report Outline

A Vision

- Describes the ideal future.
- Is where you want to be at a future date.
- Describes a dream or special accomplishment.
- Can be 2-3 sentences.
- May exist only in draft form for a while until the group has more experience working together.

A Vision Statement is also:

- “sensible to the head”
- “appealing to the heart”
- Imaginable
- Desirable
- Feasible
- Focused
- Flexible
- Communicable

---- Leading Change, John P. Kotter

Why Have a Vision Statement?

- Provides Direction (the same one)
- Gives you something to strive for
- Gives clarity
- Helps you orient to future goals
